NO TATTOOS

Young love is fickle. Fashions change.
Nothing is forever, child.
Few things stay the same.
It's risky business growing up.
So much to choose.
Don't make no babies and no tattoos.

You can have adventures.
Sail the seven seas.
The world is full of opportunities.
Just keep your head, my child
and know your heart.
If you find a dead end,
you can make a new start.

Young love is fickle. Fashions change.
Nothing is forever, child.
Few things stay the same.
It's risky business growing up.
So much to choose.
Don't make no babies and no tattoos.

If you reach for greatness,
and I sure hope you do,
you're going to do some things you wish you didn't do.
Regret is part of life. That's a fact.
You want to be able to just take it back.
