SILENT PLACE

There's a silent place deep inside of me.
Where I can retreat when chaos reigns.
There I find the peace that I sorely need.
There's a silent place inside of me.

When I'm feeling like
the world is down on me
and I cannot do one thing right,
when I try so hard,
but still I make mistakes.
I find that silent place inside of me.

There's a silent place deep inside of me.
Where I can retreat when chaos reigns.
There I find the peace that I sorely need.
There's a silent place inside of me.

When my precious dreams
dry up and blow away
like just so many autumn leaves and I'm left to face the harsh realities.
I find that silent place inside of me.

There's a silent place Deep inside of me.
Where I can retreat when chaos reigns.
There I find the peace that I sorely need.
There's a silent place inside of me.
